

Title: "The Arctic Club: Seattle's Secret Society and the Alaskan Gold Rush"

Elevator Pitch

Embark on a thrilling journey with "The Arctic Club," a riveting documentary that unearths the captivating story of the Great Alaskan Gold Rush and its clandestine connection to Seattle's enigmatic Arctic Club society. Discover never-before-seen footage, unravel the secret lives of key members, and witness the powerful impact of this mysterious organization on the Pacific Northwest's history. As we honor the rich cultural legacy of Alaskan Indigenous peoples, you'll be captivated by the extraordinary tales of adventure, ambition, and the indomitable human spirit. Don't miss this unforgettable exploration into a lost world, where secrets are revealed, and history comes alive.

Logline

Uncover the incredible story of the Great Alaskan Gold Rush and its intriguing connection to Seattle's Arctic Club society in "The Arctic Club," a captivating documentary that takes you on an unforgettable journey through time, while honoring the cultural legacy of Alaskan Indigenous peoples.

Synopsis

"The Arctic Club" is a spellbinding documentary that uncovers the fascinating story of the Great Alaskan Gold Rush and the hidden connection to Seattle's Arctic Club society. With exclusive access to never-before-seen family archives, this film follows key members of the club as they delve into stories long thought to have been lost in time.

In the late 19th and early 20th century, the Arctic Club in Seattle, Washington, served as a hub for prospectors, entrepreneurs, and adventurers who had been drawn to the untamed wilderness of Alaska in search of gold. Our documentary will explore the secret society of the club, its profound influence on its members, and the role it played in shaping the history of the Pacific Northwest.

Woven throughout the narrative is a deep respect for the cultural sensitivity of Alaskan Indigenous peoples, whose lives were forever changed by the arrival of gold seekers. We will carefully explore the intricate relationships between the Arctic Club, its members, and the Indigenous communities, unearthing untold stories of cooperation and collaboration.

The Arctic Club not only helped its members amass wealth, but also contributed to the development of Seattle and the surrounding region. With its rich history, the club played a pivotal role in fostering growth and success for its members and the local community. The film will delve into specific details of how the Arctic Club's influence extended beyond its walls, providing support and guidance for countless individuals and their families.

"The Arctic Club" is a historical upgrade that seamlessly fades the past into the present, allowing viewers to connect with the gripping tale of ambition, adventure, and determination. This engaging, riveting, and authentic saga is brought back to life through stunning visuals, expert interviews, and immersive storytelling that will leave audiences captivated and inspired.

Join us on this remarkable journey as we uncover the mysteries of the Arctic Club and its lasting impact on the people, history, and culture of the Pacific Northwest.

New Customers

The Arctic Club, once an enigmatic secret society, has now transformed into a stunning public hotel, embracing its storied past while offering modern amenities. Boasting an elegant conference room, the hotel provides the perfect setting for guests to immerse themselves in history as they conduct business or celebrate special events. "The Arctic Club" documentary captures the essence of this remarkable establishment, drawing visitors from around the world, eager to experience its rich heritage. As the film captivates audiences, the Arctic Club Hotel will continue to attract customers for years to come, solidifying its place as a unique destination where history and luxury converge.

Return on Investment (ROI)

"The Arctic Club" offers significant potential for a high return on investment due to its compelling narrative, broad appeal, and strategic marketing plan. The film's unique subject matter and engaging storytelling are sure to captivate audiences, providing both an educational and entertaining experience.

Film Festivals

Submitting "The Arctic Club" to renowned film festivals, such as Sundance, Toronto International Film Festival, and Tribeca Film Festival, will generate early buzz and critical acclaim. Garnering awards and recognition at these prestigious festivals will not only elevate the film's reputation but also attract potential distributors and additional funding for future projects.

Marketing

Our comprehensive marketing strategy will target history enthusiasts, adventure seekers, and documentary film lovers. We will leverage social media, podcast interviews, and targeted advertising to create awareness and anticipation for the film. Collaborations with influencers in the history and adventure sectors will amplify the film's reach and engage potential viewers. Furthermore, we will partner with local museums, historical societies, and educational institutions in Seattle and Alaska to host exclusive screenings and panel discussions, cementing the film's cultural significance.

Amazon Prime

By securing a distribution deal with Amazon Prime, "The Arctic Club" will be accessible to a vast global audience. This platform offers excellent exposure and the potential for substantial royalties based on viewership. Amazon Prime's recommendation algorithm, paired with the film's enticing premise, will drive increased viewership and generate a consistent revenue stream.

In conclusion, "The Arctic Club" has the potential for a significant return on investment through its unique storytelling, festival circuit success, targeted marketing efforts, and accessibility on Amazon Prime. The film's ability to captivate and educate viewers ensures its lasting appeal, paving the way for continued success and profitability.

Budget Outline for "The Arctic Club" - $250,000

Pre-Production: $35,000

- a. Research and Development: $10,000
- b. Script and Story Development: $5,000
- c. Location Scouting: $5,000
- d. Securing Permits and Legal Fees: $5,000
- e. Casting and Crew Recruitment: $5,000
- f. Travel and Accommodation for Initial Meetings: $5,000

Production: $150,000

- a. Principal Photography: $40,000
 - i. Equipment Rentals: $15,000
 - ii. Crew Salaries: $25,000
- b. On-Location Expenses: $60,000
 - i. Travel and Accommodation: $30,000
 - ii. Location Fees and Permits: $10,000
 - iii. Catering and Craft Services: $10,000

SUBJECT: Documentary "The Arctic Club"

- iv. Transportation and Equipment Shipping: $10,000
- c. Archival Footage and Image Licensing: $20,000
- d. Interviews and Testimonials: $10,000
- e. Contingency Fund: $20,000

Post-Production: $50,000

- a. Editing: $15,000
- b. Visual Effects and Graphics: $5,000
- c. Sound Design and Mixing: $10,000
- d. Music Licensing and Scoring: $10,000
- e. Color Grading: $5,000
- f. Final Mastering and Deliverables: $5,000

Marketing and Distribution: $15,000

- a. Film Festival Submission Fees: $2,000
- b. Promotional Materials (posters, trailers, etc.): $5,000
- c. Social Media Advertising: $4,000
- d. Public Relations and Press Outreach: $2,000
- e. Special Screenings and Events: $2,000

Total Budget: $250,000

Producer: Chad Copeland chad.copeland@me.com 425.301.2110